

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	V
----------------------------	---

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	VII
-----------------------------	-----

Introduction: Judicial Culture as Vector of Legal Europeanization

Manuel GUȚAN	1
---------------------------	---

I. Paths of Change in (European) Judicial Culture23

Judicial Culture and European Integration – from an Austrian Perspective

Irmgard GRISS	25
----------------------------	----

Judicial Dialogue in the Process of Europeanization: the Perspective of Constitutional Justice

Rainer ARNOLD, Manuel STRUNZ	30
-------------------------------------------	----

The Role of Dignity in Constitutional Comparative Justice

Cinzia PICIOCCHI	37
-------------------------------	----

Inertia or Pattern Following? Phase Lag of and Defiance by the Central and Eastern European Judiciary

Csaba VARGA	50
--------------------------	----

II. Constitutional Adjudication and Political Pressures.....79

Legitimization by Political Obedience or by Discourse? – Some Brief
Considerations on the Jurisprudence of the Constitutional Court of Romania

Marius BALAN	81
---------------------------	----

Shaping the Role of the President: The Influence of the Romanian
Constitutional Court's Jurisprudence

Bogdan DIMA	105
--------------------------	-----

III. Constitutional-Judicial Culture and Europeanization	119
Constitutional Semantics and Legal Culture
Elena Simina TĂNĂSESCU.....	121
Constitutional-Judicial Culture in Romania - Ambivalence and Possibility
Bogdan IANCU	135
‘Europeanization’ Versus ‘New Localism’ in Shaping Fundamental Rights: ‘Free Speech’ Definitions, Limitations and Deadlocks in New Democracies
Alexandra IANCU.....	148
IV. Judicial Culture and European Human Rights.....	179
Direct Application of the European Court of Human Right’s Case-Law by Romanian Domestic Courts
Beatrice RAMAȘCANU.....	181
Human Rights – An Element of the European Judicial Culture?
Bianca SELEJAN-GUȚAN.....	202
The Romanian Judicial Culture and the Application of the European Court of Human Rights’ Case-Law. An Empirical Research
Manuel GUȚAN	220
V. Judicial Culture and European Law.....	247
The Culture of Excess (On How Not to Enforce the European Union Law)
Raluca BERCEA.....	249
Facing a Double Europeanization of the Refugee Law: The Romanian Courts’ Experiences
Catrinel BRUMAR	261